Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-6, 8-13, 15, 16, 27-29, 31, 33-35, 37 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Stefik et al. (US 5,629,980 A).

Examiner's Note: The Examiner has pointed out particular references contained in the prior art of record within the body of this action for the convenience of the Applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply. Applicant, in preparing the response, should consider fully the entire reference as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior art or disclosed by the Examiner.

Claims 1-6, 8-13, 15, 27-29, 31, 33-35, 37:

Stefik discloses assigning usage permission rights to digital works to include encryption techniques, identification and authorization certificates for data repositories and playback devices, transfer and storage of the digital work from a repository to the playback device, copyright protocols, and registration transactions, as well as a deletion step for digital works.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 7, 14, 30, 32, 36, and 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stefik et al. (US 5,629,980 A).

Claims 7, 30, and 36:

Stefik discloses the digital works usage rights and permissions system as shown in the rejections above. Stefik does not disclose playback means as a personal video or versatile recorder. However, the Examiner takes Official Notice that such devices are common and well-known to the digital works community because they are user-friendly and easily obtainable devices for rendering digital works.

Claim 14:

Stefik discloses the digital works usage rights and permissions system as shown in the rejections above. Stefik does not disclose a wireless network. However, the Examiner takes Official Notice that such wireless networks are common and well-known to the computer and telecommunication arts because wireless networks supply seamless communication between servers, Internet service providers, and end-user electronics, thereby providing seamless mobile communications for traveling users.

Claims 32 and 38:

Stefik discloses the digital works usage rights and permissions system as shown in the rejections above. Stefik does not disclose SSL connections. However, the Examiner takes Official Notice that SSL network connections are common and well-known to the computer and telecommunication arts because it provides secure networks communications between servers, Internet service providers, and end-user electronics, thereby making available protected mobile communications for traveling users.
